Organic SEO Company Peak Positions Legal Disclosure: For the purposes of this organic search engine optimization published guideline and website policy posting, the term organic optimization "Proprietary Information" shall mean organic search engine optimization or organic SEO as all programs, trade secrets, W3C HTML code compositions, dynamic site optimization procedures, inventions, techniques, vendor relationships, advertising agency partnerships, strategic alliances, and venture capital arrangements. Our Organic SEO Company provides proven organic search engine optimization solutions in what many parties consider as the most competitive marketing and advertising sector in the world. Our organic SEO company client domains and URLs have been deemed confidential and privileged, belonging to and for the exclusive sole benefit of our clients. Our Organic SEO Company Internet Publishing and Organic Search Engine Optimization Legal Copyright Statement is as follows: Our organic SEO company corporate attorneys in compliance with the Digital Millennium Act of 1995, The Lanham Act, and the established electronic publishing ownership copyright laws of ICANN (www.icann.org), also in compliance with the UK Patent Office 2001 Internet Copyright Legislation have worked together in publishing this organic search engine optimization disclaimer. New laws have been introduced over the last 8 years giving legal protection to the right of our organic SEO firm in the digital environment; in 1996, the world intellectual property organization (WIPO) treaty made a move toward intellectual legislation leading to the following laws and amendments to be passed: the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA, 1998) in the United States, in the European Directive 2001/29/EC in Europe, which requires member states to implement the changes to their own internet publishing legislation as a result of materials, images, text, content, technology, trademarks, patents, service marks and copyrights partly because of their abstract nature can appear as just a bundle, but are protected with invisible rights. Intellectual property rights are complicated and it is easier to pretend that they do not exist and ignore them rather than try to abide by and comprehend them. Organic SEO Company Peak Positions, LLC of Traverse City, Michigan and our corporate attorneys understand that ignorance of our organic SEO company policies and natural search engine optimization services does not provide protection under the established laws. This organic search engine optimization and organic SEO company website is in compliance with new international legislation regarding copyrights and intellectual property rights and are posting this natural optimization legal disclaimer statement in an effort to better control and manage third party interaction with this website. Any duplication, reproduction or unauthorized use of any part of this organic SEO company website, its images, contents, format, designs, etc., without the express written consent of Organic SEO Company Peak Positions including the use of Peer-to-Peer network software that allows the sharing of unlicensed copies of the organic search engine optimization content published within is breaking the law and strictly forbidden by Peak Positions, LLC of Traverse City, Michigan (USA). Peak Positions SEO Traverse City, Michigan provides organic search engine optimization; the process of targeting keyword search phrases related to a website, and ensuring that corporate website properties are listed at the top of the organic search results pages when corresponding target keyword phrases are included as part of an Internet keyword search or organic keyword search query. All written organic search engine optimization materials, press releases, newspaper articles, contained herein of any nature whatsoever are subject to our organic SEO company copyright and trademark protection and shall remain the exclusive property of our Traverse City Organic SEO company and be deemed as that by terms used in the United States Copyright Law, 17 U.S.C. Section 101, the Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998, and the Lanham Act. This Governing Law of Intellectual Property rights protection and organic SEO policies published on this organic search engine optimization company and natural search engine optimization firm website shall be construed and enforced pursuant to the digital copyright laws of the State of Michigan. Our Organic Search Engine Optimization clients understand that the major search engines and directories are complex and that our proven Organic SEO company programs typically require time, unique skills, and highly specialized organic search engine optimization capabilities required to secure and maintain prominent keyword positions on the organic search results pages. Our Organic SEO company clients are all clearly made aware that only the major search engines themselves can dictate and guarantee any given keyword position, database inclusion, or specific position on search results pages.

Peak Positions SEO does not make any disingenuous claims, bold promises, or false guarantees that any specific domain or URL that incorporates our exclusive organic search engine optimization processes will instantly and magically receive top five keyword positions in the user preferred natural/organic search results pages of: Google, Yahoo, MSN, AOL, or any major search engine, in thirty days or less. Our proven organic search engine optimization procedures are not guaranteed to deliver any specific keyword position in the natural search results or to attain any specific keyword position in the organic search results within any designated period of time following upload and implementation. Each corporate website is unique and is treated as such by the pre-programmed, automated, robot spiders that control nearly all meaningful organic keyword search positions. URL acceptance levels and organic search placement capabilities can be impacted by several factors, and working to gain an understanding of the collective algorithm parameters being utilized by the major search engine spiders that control organic keyword search results is critical. Peak Positions LLC appreciates your consideration of our organic SEO company and proven natural search engine optimization programs and invites you to contact our organic search engine optimization technical team directly by email at: info@peakpositions.com or by telephone at: 866-536-8614.
